Legal Officer – Administrative Law

The Role

The role of Legal Officer – Administrative Law is to provide both advice and advocacy support in complex areas of civil law, which may include administrative law matters in areas such as:

- Social Services;
- Mental Health;
- Guardianship;
- Migration;
- National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS); and
- Veterans Affairs.

- Appearing before the South Australian Civil and Administrative Tribunal (SACAT) and the Administrative Appeals Tribunal (AAT).
- All members of the Civil & Administrative Law unit will form part of a reserve pool of Advisers available to be rostered for duty on the Telephone Advice Line as required from time to time, and they will be expected to participate as required in community legal education programs that are conducted by the Commission.

Salary Range

$81,804 - $87,837p.a (LSC2)

What You Need For Success

The ideal candidate will be able to demonstrate the following:

- Be an admitted practitioner of the Supreme Court of South Australia.
- Possess a minimum of two (2) years post-admission legal experience and holds an unrestricted practicing certificate.
- Possess a broad knowledge of court and tribunal procedures as they relate to Administrative Law.

Next Steps

To apply for this role please detail your relevant experience via a cover letter (no more than two pages) and supporting résumé. All applications are to be submitted to HR@lsc.sa.gov.au by 5.00pm on Tuesday, 10 November 2020.

- Please refer to the Position Description for further details. Should you require any further information please direct your query to Tara Simpson on (08) 8111 5521.
- Please note there is more than one contract position available.