

FAMILY LAW CONFERENCING

SOLICITOR'S SUMMARY FORM

The information to be provided in the Summary Form is intended as a broad overview to inform the Conferencing Chairperson and to assist in negotiation. The information provided is confidential.

Conferences will run for up to three hours and it is requested that you ensure that your client has set that time aside to enable effective use of the allocated time.

It is important that any issues of mental health, drug or alcohol abuse, client safety, child abuse or any other factors which may impact on the conduct of the Conference are immediately reported to the FDR Organiser who will make an assessment of the concerns prior to the Conference proceeding.
